The Economic Development Board (EDB) Mauritius

The Economic Development Board (EDB) is the leading agency mandated by the Government to provide strong institutional support for strategic economic planning, promote Mauritius as an attractive investment and business centre, a competitive export platform as well as an international financial centre.

EDB is looking for dynamic and experienced Information Systems professionals to join the National Electronic Licensing System project implementation team as Software Engineers.

National Electronic Licensing System
Software Engineer

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor’s degree in Software Engineering or equivalent qualifications
- Proficient in JAVA and JS languages and web services interfaces
- At least 2 years relevant work experience in software development
- Conversant with centralized code management and DevOps tools

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Development of front-end and back-end applications using JS, AJAX, J2EE, Maven, Git and IBM WebSphere Application Servers, DB2 and other technologies
- Development of web service components using XML, SOAP, REST API, JSON etc
- Development and integration of BPM processes in IBM Digital Process Automation platform
- Participate actively in application design, testing, debugging and problem resolution
- Collaborate with analysts, operations team and services providers as needed
- Adopt Scrum and Agile practices, ensuring agreed deadlines and quality standards

Mode of Application:

Please visit the EDB’s website at http://www.edbmauritius.org for further information on the above post.

Applications should be submitted online on http://jobs.edbmauritius.org at latest by Monday 08th July 2019 at 14h00.

EDB reserves the right not to make any appointment following this advertisement.

19 June 2019